Casa Mañana Continues Partnership with Community Bank

(Fort Worth, Texas) — Casa Mañana is excited to announce Community Bank as the sponsor of the upcoming 2010-2011 Children's Theatre season. The 2010 – 2011 season presented by Community Bank offers great shows for the entire family including Snow White and the Seven Dwarves, the world stage premiere of the television classic Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer, Disney's My Son Pinocchio, The Adventures of Brer Rabbit and The Wizard of Oz.

Community Bank is continuing this historic sponsorship which first began during the 2009 – 2010 Children's Theatre season. The partnership focuses on spreading the word about financial literacy and teaching children at an early age the importance of saving vs. spending. During the 2009 – 2010 Children's Theatre season over 85,000 children were exposed to this message.

"We are very excited about continuing this wonderful partnership with a premiere bank in the area and teach our young patrons about financial literacy in a fun environment," said Wally Jones, Casa Mañana's President and Executive Producer.

About Children's Theatre at Casa Mañana and Community Bank

The Children's Theatre at Casa Mañana was launched in 1961. The Board of Directors and staff recognized the need to provide greater cultural and educational exposure to live theatre for the youth of the community. Casa Mañana's Children's Theatre is the only professional children's theatre company in Tarrant County. Special student matinee performances provide school groups tickets discounted by 65% to assure that children can experience live theatre in hopes of making theatre an integral part of a child's well-rounded education.

Independently owned and operated, Community Bank blends up-to-date technology and convenience with old-fashioned service and loyalty. Community Bank owns and operates ten Texas branches in Acton, Burleson, Cleburne, Fort Worth, Granbury, Hurst, Rockwall and Rowlett. The bank offers investments, loans, online banking, business and personal banking — all with personal attention to the customer. Community Bank is a Member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. (FDIC) and is an Equal Housing Lender.
